After thirty years at the Nashville Palace where many Grand Ole Opry Stars, Movie Stars, Sports Figures and Politicians entered through the door to dine, perform on stage or to just enjoy good food, good friends and a good time, John A. Hobbs decided to open a new place called "John A's."

Many new comers came to try and fulfill a dream to become a star. We offered them the chance to showcase or to be in our talent show. We hope this tradition continues at John A's. Some of the new comers were Lori Morgan, Randy Travis, Ricky Van Shelton and Alan Jackson. We also had some great performers on stage, such as, Boxcar Willie, Johnny Russell, Jeannie Seely, Porter Wagoner, Johnny Counterfit, Shotgun Red, Jim Ed Brown, Roni Stoneman, Marty Stuart, Connie Smith, Little Jimmy Dickens, Roy Acuff, Del Reeves, Hank Williams, Jr., Tom Wopat, Charlie Pride, George Jones, Garth Brooks, Jack Greene, Jimmie C. Newman, Dana Cupp, and many, many others.

We also had Ralph Emery, Keith Bilbrey, The Smothers Brothers, Tommy Lasorda (Dodgers), Sam Lovullo (HeeHaw), Billy Russell, John McNamara, George (Goober) Lindsey, Dick Clark, Troy Aikman, Doug Dickey, Al Gore, Joe Sassano (Notre Dame), and Joe West (Umpire) along with many others to grace our stage.
